Collision of Passenger Trains.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., October 18.—Two passenger trains on the Cincinnati Valley road collided on a curve near here this morning. One man was killed and a great number injured. The accident resulted from disobedience of running orders on the part of Conductor Lenn of the west bound train, which had on board about three hundred passengers for the Hagerstown fair. Both engines were demolished and the express and baggage cars wrecked. Charles Bauer, baggage master, was killed. The number of wounded cannot be ascertained at present. Among the injured is Alexander Linn, conductor; George Bournard, conductor, of the east-bound train. Wm. Hyssong and Jacob Fuller, engineers of the trains, and Harmon Brinkman, mail agent. Several members of the Quantette club of New York were more or less injured. The wounded are being cared for at Shippensburg.

Blaine to Chicago.

CHICAGO, October 18.—Hon. James G. Blaine remained in his rooms at the Grand Pacific hotel to day and received no callers. He will remain here till Saturday, when he will address a meeting at Battery D armory. Local politicians are making preparations for a great demonstration on that occasion.

A stated conclave of Pike's Peak Commandery, No. 6, Knights Templar, will be held at the asylum this evening at half-past seven o'clock.

Mr. W. J. Lawrence, the western division superintendent of the Rock Island, arrived in the city yesterday. His headquarters will be in this city

The Harrison and Morton club will meet this evening at half past 7, promptly, at Armory hall. It is important that all republicans who intend taking part in the [illegible] parade be present to-morrow night

Hon. Thomas M. Patterson, the democratic candidate for governor, will address the voters at court house hall this evening. There will be a large [illegible] present and a portion of the room will be reserved for ladies

The Denver, Texas & Ft. Worth railway at this point are making a specialty in the settlement of freight claims with out overcharge. All proper corrections are made on specific bills before collection, in that way avoiding the trouble waiting process so common to this branch of the railway service.

C. N. Beals of Corsicana, Texas, addressed the democrats at court house hall last night. A small audience greeted the speaker. He is a very forcible speaker [illegible] to work his hearers into considerable enthusiasm, and that is a good deal to accomplish in a democratic audience in the present campaign. He dealt in the usual tariff reform talk and slashing references to Blaine.

The attendance at the Art Loan exhibition is improving with every day as the people get more and more interested in the pictures. The committee has decided to set apart Saturday, October 20th, between the hours of ten and one in the morning and two and six in the afternoon as "school day" and to reduce the admission to ten cents for all school children on that day.

The Denver, Texas and Ft. Worth is talking of putting on a train between this city and Denver, for the special accommodation of Colorado Springs people who wish to spend the day in Denver. It will probably leave this city in the morning and return late in the evening. The road reports a much larger business since the completion of the road than ever before and is doing thousands of dollars worth of business now where it did hundreds before.

The Cut table of the Rock Island road has been issued for the running of trains on the C. F. & N. branch. The trains at present are run from Goodland, Kas., to this city. But two trains are run a day, fast accommodation freights Nos. 92 and 94, and carry passengers both ways. Train No. 92 leaves this city going east at 6:30 a. m. and 94 leaves at 10 p. m., the former arriving at Goodland at 10 p. m., the same day, and the latter at 3 the next afternoon. Train No. 93 leaves Goodland at 3:15 p. m. arriving in this city at 8 p. m. No. 95 leaves Goodland at 6:30 p. m. and arrives in this city at 10 p. m.

The board of registration were in session again yesterday but did not nearly complete their work. The Fourth will sit again to-day. The registration is very heavy. In the First ward 800 names were registered; in the Second 450, in the Third 875, and in the Fourth [illegible]. Some inquiries have been made regarding the qualification of voters and the number of registration days yet to transpire. The law in this state provides that a voter [illegible] the State must have been a resident of the state six months, of the county ninety days and of the precinct ten days. For registration days the law provides that the judges of election shall sit as boards of registration [illegible] days next preceding the day of election and continue in session for three days if necessary, [illegible] Tuesday preceding the election when all persons desiring to vote must appear with their [illegible] and have their names registered. Persons who will not be of age by that time are entitled to vote. The Tuesday preceding election this year is October 28th. On the day before [illegible] the boards will sit at the [illegible] registration list. The [illegible] Monday, November 3d. A voter can not be registered [illegible] election day as in the case in some states.

When Mr Patterson said that the government had $125,000,000 stowed away in the treasury vaults at Washington, he must have forgotten that $87,000,000 of that money is not in the treasury vaults, but has been loaned to banks without interest by the democratic administration.

The Indianapolis Journal says that it would be worth a good deal if the city of New York should elect a republican mayor and local officers. It would be worth a good deal if the republican candidate would make a better mayor than Mr. Hewitt has. But though the democratic papers have all spoken kindly of Mr. Edgarb, it is not likely that he will show greater intelligence and honesty and faithfulness in the discharge of his duties than Mr. Hewitt has. In addition to this, Mr. Hewitt has shown on qualification which we think no mayor of our great municipalities has shown. For many years those most interested in the political welfare of this country have shown great anxiety regarding the management of our great municipalities. The dregs of the foreign elements have settled in our great cities. The more intelligent and thrifty have usually pushed out into the sparsely settled country. As a result the management of the affairs of our great cities is either directly in the control of these foreign elements or else under the control of those who favor and foster these elements. Only recently we drew attention to the fact that the majority of the school board in Chicago was composed of foreign-born citizens. This would not be a great calamity if these foreign-born citizens were thoroughly American. If they were not. A student who read every good essay on the dangers of immigration was publicly reprimanded by a number of the school board there, so overcoming more than every true American citizen thinks and feels in our country, it is enough work to teach the pupils the English language and give them the rudiments of a common school education. But in Chicago this foreign element, as in fact in other cities, is taught, so that the Germans who come to this city do not sustain the use of their former home, but continue the use of their native tongue. Boston was one of the last of the great cities to give way to the control of the foreign element. At last accounts [illegible] in Boston is [illegible] per cent. [illegible] the Boston [illegible] way to [illegible] must be [illegible] dering to the [illegible] introduction [illegible]

In both of our national conventions we may have our sympathies but our national platforms should be devoted to American ideas and American issues. Of course it is not intended to reflect on foreign born citizens who have become Americans. There is no American race accurately speaking except the Indians. But the objection is to those foreign born citizens who come to this country, and, though having a knowledge of American institutions do not become American in sympathies, but hold themselves together in close alliance by their sympathy with foreign political struggles. This is peculiarly the case in our large cities where these foreign elements hold together and remain unclassified in American sympathy and life. Mayor Hewitt is the true mayor who has had the courage to take the true American position. He is opposed to allow but one flag to wave over the mayor's quarters, he declared no substitute for the American flag. It is much more important that such a man should occupy mayor of New York than the representative of any particular party. If we want to uproot the dangerous foreign elements in our cities, we must make up our minds that America shall no longer be the "Botany Bay for Europe" and that the men who come out here and accept Citizenship, shall place their loyalty to and interest in this country above that of any other.

Fifteenth Congress

SENATE

WASHINGTON, October 18—Gray, in the absence of the Connecticut senators, presented a memorial of 500 citizens of Connecticut—working men and manufacturers—that raw materials, particularly wool, salt, lumber, tin plate, etc. be free of duty. Laid on the table.

The resolution for recess from Saturday, to the 19th of November was taken up.

Paddock [illegible] for recess by a short recess begin the 27th inst. and end the 12th of November.

Brown of Georgia offered a resolution for final adjournment of this session at 1 o'clock next Saturday. He said he did not believe the passage of the tariff bill would be facilitated by prolongation of the session. If the democrats were successful at the coming presidential election something like the Mills bill would be passed. If republicans were successful something like the senate bill would be passed. Popular opinion on the subject would be known after the election.

Discussion followed. Allison accepted Brown's resolution and on the vote a majority of democrats voted in the affirmative and a majority of republicans in the negative.

There was no demand for division, and the chair after a longer pause than usual declared the concurrent resolution adopted.

Teller offered a resolution instructing the committee on Indian affairs to inquire as to the truth of the report that the secretary of the interior had purchased a large number of wagons for Indian service manufactured with prison labor in Tennessee. He made some remarks on the subject, intimating that the complaint was really against the late commissioner of Indian affairs.

After a lively debate between Teller, Bate and Cockrell the resolution went over on objection by Cockrell.

The senate then took recess for half an hour in expectation of some messages from the president.

The senate then resumed consideration of the tariff bill and was addressed by Aldrich. He (Aldrich) asserted that the table concerning tariff rates in the house and senate bills furnished by the bureau of statistics and produced some days ago by vote was full of misstatements and errors, and entirely inaccurate and misleading, and that the bureau officials if they knew anything about the subject, must have known that it was.

The discussion was continued by Senators Frye, Evarts and Teller.

Cockrell replied to Aldrich's criticism of the tables of the bureau. He said that they were perfectly correct and had been made out under headings prepared by himself and Kasperstein, a Prussian employee of that bureau, who had been in the department at least since '79, and who had no interest directly or indirectly in any misrepresentation.

Allison offered a resolution authorizing the finance committee to continue its investigation into [illegible] over until to-morrow.

HOUSE

Cox in the chair. At the opening Farquhar of New York complained of the absence of the speaker and maintained a fight keeping a skeleton House in session while the political game was going on.

Richardson of Tennessee called for the regular order.

Farquhar made the point of no quorum.

The chair ruled that he could not officially close no quorum as the house was not counted.

The journal was then read, and the chair asked if it should be approved.

Taylor of Ohio objected and raised the point of no quorum.

The speaker said on examination he found it was the duty of the speaker [illegible] of the house to approve the journal. The journal was approved.
